

The Project:

1. Make a comprehensive documentary outlining the workings, functioning of the NGO volunteer aid organization MEDRIX. Focusing on the people of Vietnam and the impact of the Medrix organization on a community.
2. Make a personal documentary about one doctor's journey from American medical practice to third world medical practices. Trace the journey of his only son trying to document his relationship to his father on their journey to Vietnam.

Necessary Nomad Films Is a joint team of international filmmakers, committed to documenting environments outside of the United States as well as America's relationship and action with the rest of the world. NN Films is not about politics, but about people.

Medrix Is a volunteer organization that serves the people of South East Asia by sharing medical, educational and development resources. Medrix travels to Cambodia and Vietnam.
